

New Chinese Ambassador calls on NA President

(KPL) : National Assembly President Mr. Thongsing Thammavong yesterday received at his office new Chinese Ambassador to Laos, Ms. Bu Jiangua.

Mr. Thongsing Thammavong extended his warm welcome to the new ambassador and praised his appointment to the Lao PDR.

On this occasion, Mr. Thongsing Thammavong and his guest exchanged views on the relationship and co-operation between the two countries. They expressed satisfaction over the constant co-operation and effective assistance which they hoped would continue to grow in response to the two peoples' aspirations.

Mr. Thongsing Thammavong hoped that the new ambassador would contribute to further developing ties and co-operation. He also wished the new ambassador success in her task.

The new ambassador pledged to do her utmost to boost the good relations and co-operation between the two countries