

NA President receives Russian Communist Party delegation.

(KPL) Mr. Thongsing Thammavong, LPRP CC Politburo member and President of the National Assembly, yesterday received here the visiting Communist Party of the Russian Federation (CPRF), led by Party Central Committee Secretary Leonid Kalashnikov. Talking with the delegation; Mr. Thongsing praised its current visit to Laos as contributing to the task of improving and developing the party of each country. He believed that the visit of the communist delegation of Russia would contribute to the further consolidation of the traditional relations of friendship and co-operation between the two countries and people, particularly between the communist party of Laos and Russia.

On this occasion, Mr. Leonid Kalashnikov expressed thanks to NA President for his warm welcome and hailed the strengthening of relations between the two Parties as a positive development.
