

NA President receives Cuba delegation.

(KPL) President of National Assembly (NA) Thongsing Thammavong, received here a courtesy visit of the International President of Cuba Institute for Friendship, Ms Kenia Serrano Puig, and her delegation on 17 March. She told the President of NA that she would be collaborating with the Laos-Cuba Friendship Association to organize the Fifth Asia-Pacific Region for Solidarity with Cuba, scheduled to be held in Vientiane, 19-20 March. This meeting, she added, would focus on building friendship organizations in the Asia-Pacific region and exchange lessons to enhance solidarity with the movement in Cuba. Mr Thongsing Thammavong expressed his warm welcome and wished her well on her assigned task of organizing this meeting.

He also said he highly valued the working visit of the Cuba delegation, which is making an important contribution to fostering friendship and cooperation between the two Parties and people of the two countries, Laos and Cuba.
